Problem E10:

(a) Find the limits of the classically allowed region for a particle in the ground state of the harmonic oscillator.

(b) Using graph paper, plot a few points and make a sketch of the probability distribution for this state. Then estimate the probability that the particle is outside the classically allowed region by counting squares on the graph.